

Q: WHAT DO YOU GET IF AN ELEPHANT SITS ON YOUR FRIEND?

A: A FLAT MATE!

THE STORY OF BABAR

BY FRANCIS POULENC

Elephants are not usually allowed in the West Road Concert Hall.

They are slightly too large for the seats and when they applaud, they tend to stamp their feet and go through the floor.

Just as well, then, that Babar and his friends are coming to Cambridge in a story set to music instead.

If you like elephants, animal noises, good stories and noisy orchestras then you really must come and join us.

Shelly Lange will be telling the story in words and the Sinfonia of Cambridge will supply the music to go with it, conducted by their friendly trainer Mr Graham Ross.

There'll be a special guest too: Annemarie Federle, playing a Mozart Horn Concerto movement which should appeal to elephants of all ages (and their friends).

IF YOU HAVE AN ELEPHANT AT HOME THAT CAN SIT ON YOUR KNEE, PLEASE BRING HIM OR HER ALONG!

HOW MANY ELEPHANTS CAN YOU GET INTO A CONCERT HALL? WAIT AND SEE!
